

October

MyRate makes impression

New online mortgage provider myrate.com.au says it has secured $100 million in applications in its first three months. The online mortgage provider charges no fees for loans on properties valued less than $500,000 and says it can deliver pre-approvals in as little as two minutes, with unconditional approval in five days. myrate says customers appreciate its simple online processes coupled with real people to support them during the application process.